Michael CUMMINGS

Michael James Cummings was born at Irvinebank, Queensland in 1893 to parents Patrick & Mary Annie Cummings (nee Foley). He was a 23 year old, single, Miner from Irvinebank, Queensland when he enlisted on 1st July, 1916 with the 8th Infantry Brigade, 31st Infantry Battalion, 10th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His service number was 4033 & his religion was Roman Catholic. His next of kin was listed as his father – Patrick Cummings of Irvinebank, Queensland.

On the Attestation Papers completed by Michael Cummings on 6th June, 1916 – he stated he had previously served in 2nd Infantry (Demobilised). According to other paperwork included in Pte Michael Cummings' Service Record File – He was mobilised for War Service in August, 1914 & embarked at Cairns, Queensland on 8th August, 1914 for Thursday Island (War Station) Garrison Duty. He enlisted on 14th August, 1914 for service outside Australia. He re-embarked at Thursday Island on 16th August, 1914 on troopship Kanowna to take part in the capture of German New Guinea & was taken on strength of the A. N. & M. E. F. dated 6th September, 1914. He returned to Townsville on 18th September, 1914 on account of the trouble caused by the fireman on the troopship. He did not participate in the capture of German New Guinea & was discharged on 18th September, 1914. He was classified as eligible for British War Medal.

[The Australian Naval and Military Expeditionary Force (A.N. & M.E.F.) was a small volunteer force of approximately 2,000 men, raised in Australia shortly after the outbreak of the First World War to seize and destroy German wireless stations in German New Guinea in the south-west Pacific. Britain required the German wireless installations to be destroyed because they were used by Vice-Admiral Maximilian von Spee's German East Asian Cruiser Squadron, which threatened merchant shipping in the region. Following the capture of German possessions in the region, the A. N. & M. E. F. provided occupation forces for the duration of the war. New Zealand provided a similar force for the occupation of German Samoa.

Under the command of Colonel William Holmes, the A.N. & M. E.F. departed Sydney aboard HMAS Berrima and halted at Palm Island off Townsville until the New Zealand force, escorted by the battlecruiser HMAS Australia, cruiser HMAS Melbourne, and the French cruiser Montcalm, occupied Samoa on 30 August. The A.N. & M. E. F. then moved to Port Moresby where it met the Queensland contingent aboard the transport TSS Kanowna. The force then sailed for German New Guinea on 7 September but the Kanowna was left behind when her stokers refused to work. The soldiers from the Kennedy Regiment were also left in Port Moresby as Holmes felt that they were not trained or equipped well enough to be committed to the fighting that was expected.]

Pte Michael Cummings embarked from Brisbane on HMAS Boonah (A36) on 21st October, 1916 & disembarked at Plymouth, England on 10th January, 1917.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. Some of these were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire.

Pte Cummings was admitted sick to Park House Hospital on 5th March, 1917 from 8th Training Battalion at Hurdcott, Wiltshire with mumps. He was released from hospital back to 8th Training Battalion on 25th March, 1917.

Pte Cummings was admitted sick to Fovant Military Hospital from "A" Company, 8th Training Battalion on 4th April, 1917.

Private Michael Cummings died at 2.40 a.m. on 13th April, 1917 at Military Hospital, Fovant, Wiltshire from Broncho Pneumonia.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. Edith's Churchyard, Baverstock. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter from Base Records, dated 28th June, 1921, to Mr P. Cummings advises that a letter from the Defence Dept. concerning an inscription for the headstone of the late Pte M. Cummings had not been answered & non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would have to be accepted as indicating that no further action was to be taken.

Pte M. Cummings does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
