

Baverstock

CATTLE DISEASE IN WILTSHIRE

The Clerk of the Peace has furnished us with the following return to the 19th April:-

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Swindon –

Costow Farm, Lydiard Tregooze; Chaddington, Wroughton.

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Chippenham –

Withey Hayes Field, Inlands' Farm, Lacock; Bull's Mead, Upper Farm, Hardenhuish.

SHEEP SCAB

Manor Farm, Biddestone St. Peter; Stround Farm, Lacock.

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Devizes –

Farm Yard, Nurteed, Devizes; Four Farms in the Parish of Seend; Two Farms, in the Parish of Rowde; Little Cranbury Farm, Rowde; Lower Park Farm, Rowde; Farm Yard, Whistley, Devizes; Sun Leaze, Worton; Sand Leaze, Worton; Rew Farm, Seend Cleave.

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Marlborough –

Laines Farm, Alderbourne.

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Salisbury –

Field Barn, Stockton.

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Swindon –

Two Farms at Purton Pry; Tadpol, Rodbourne Cheney; Poor Ground Stalls, Purton; Brimble Stalls, Purton; Smith's Mead Stalls, Purton.

Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Tisbury –

Home Farm Yard and Cowshed, Baverstock.

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 21 April, 1870)

PLACES IN WILTSHIRE INFECTED WITH THE CATTLE PLAGUE

We have received from the Clerk of the Peace the following information showing where pleuro-pneumonia and foot-and-mouth disease at present prevail in this county:-

.....

Foot-and-mouth disease - Reported by the Veterinary Inspector at Tisbury: –

Home Farm Yard and Cowshed, Baverstock.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Thursday 21 May, 1870)

A return of parishes and places in the county of Wilts in which contagious or infectious disease exists among animals, for the week ending Saturday, 26th Oct. 1872:-

Foot and Mouth Disease

POLICE DIVISIONS

PARISHES

.....

Hindon – Ansty, Baverstock, Berwick St. John, Donhead St. Andrew, Donhead St. Mary, East Knoyle, Stourton, Wardour, West Tisbury.

.....

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 31 October, 1872)

A return of parishes and places in the county of Wilts in which contagious or infectious disease exists among animals, for the week ending Saturday, 9th Nov. 1872:-

Foot and Mouth Disease

POLICE DIVISIONS

PARISHES

.....

Hindon – Ansty, Baverstock, Berwick St. John, Donhead St. Andrew, Donhead St. Mary.

.....

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 14 November, 1872)

A return of parishes and places in the county of Wilts in which contagious or infectious disease exists among animals, for the week ending Saturday, 16th Nov. 1872:-

Foot and Mouth Disease

POLICE DIVISIONS

PARISHES

.....

Hindon – Ansty, Baverstock, Berwick St. John, Donhead St. Mary, Mere.

.....

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 21 November, 1872)

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE - A return of parishes and places in the county of Wilts in which contagious or infectious disease exists among animals, for the week ending Saturday, 30th November, 1872:-

POLICE DIVISIONS

PARISHES

.....

Hindon –Baverstock, Berwick St. John, East Knoyle, Mere.

.....

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 7 December, 1872)
