

Wedding Celebrations

Hurdcott

A marriage is arranged and will take place in November between the Hon. Mrs Powell, of Hurdcott, youngest daughter of the late Lord Headley, and the Rev. Cannon Whitefoord, Principal of the Theological College, Salisbury.

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 2 October, 1890)

The marriage of the Rev. Canon Whitefoord, Principal of the Salisbury Theological College, with the Hon. Mrs Powell, widow of Captain Powell, of Hurdcott, was solemnized at Salisbury Cathedral on Thursday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of relatives, students of the College, and friends. The service was fully choral. The Bishop performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. P. Whitefoord and Canon Livingstone, of Aigburth, Liverpool. The bride was given away by Mr St. Lawrence Tighe. The best man was the Hon. Christopher Bouverie.

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 20 November, 1890)
