

Reward

Hurdcott

Whereas on Wednesday night, or early on Thursday morning last, some evil-disposed Person or Persons entered the Sheep Fold of Mr Francis Nowlson, of Hurdcott Farm, and STOLE a LAMB, which they carried to Mr Lush's Barn, in a Field adjoining, and there skinned the same, leaving the Entrails and Skin secreted in some straw; and from the impression made by the feet of two men, which was traced through Burcomb Ivers to a field in the occupation of Mr Rowden, of Bishopstone, there is no doubt but the Carcass was taken that way.

Whoever will give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the Offender or Offenders, shall receive a REWARD of TWENTY GUINEAS, on application to the said Francis Nowlson, or to Mr John Swayne, attorney, Wilton.

November 19, 1825

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 21 November, 1825)

---