OPC Notes

The above lists have been recorded as spelt in the original document. However these lists have been sorted alphabetically. The names that are reported are different individuals. The list does not record relationships or family groups although the originals are in blocks that could denote households however this is unclear.

As with all OPC documents the transcript is an index and guide and is the OPC's interpretation of the original document. It is always advisable to refer to the original document which is held at the WSHC to clarify further.
