

Charity & Poor Law News

*Corsham
1800-1899*

1824

Christmas Bounty Agreeably to the will of the late Lady James, of Corsham, the Rev. J. A. Methuen (vicar), with other gentlemen, met at the town-hall on Wednesday (being the day before Christmas), and distributed to the poor of that parish, blankets, coats, cloaks, &c., to the amount of £100 left by her Ladyship for that purpose. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 5 January 1824