

Emigration Home Enquiries

*Corsham
1800 - Present*

1897

Gullick (William), pointsman, formerly on a railway in Wiltshire, went to Melbourne about forty-five years ago. His sister Mary's daughter (Emma Thatcher) asks. Evening News, (Sydney, New South Wales), Thursday, 24 June 1897

OPC Note: 1851 census at Corsham, Wilts, lists:- William Gullick, 40. born Camerton, Somerset, rail watchman, wife Sarah, 38, born Richmond, Surrey, and children: Sarah, 12, born Bath, Thomas, 11, born Bath, Samuel, 8 born Corsham, Martha 6, born Corsham, Eliza, 4, born Corsham and Emma, 2, born Corsham.

1911

Harris (Frederick), native of Corsham, Wilts, went to Australia 1882 or 1883. Sister Louise asks. Observer (Adelaide, South Australia), Saturday, 14 October 1911