

SALE BY AUCTION

To BREWERS, PUBLICANS, and Others.
Valuable FREE IN, or PUBLIC HOUSE

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION

On the Premises, the Harp and Crown Inn, in the Parish of Corsham, Wilts, On Wednesday, March 7th, 1838, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. By Mr. Giller. (Subject to such conditions as will then and there be produced, unless previously disposed of by Private Contract, of which the earliest Notice will be given).

ALL that old-established and well-frequented INN, or PUBLIC-HOUSE, known as the HARP and CROWN INN

Situate at the junction of the Cross Roads leading to Melksham, Lacock, Chippenham, and Corsham, and at a short distance from one of the intended Depots of the Great Western Railway from which work, now in progress, it has, and will at all time command a good share of custom, both in the BEER and SPIRIT TRADE.

There is a newly-erected Brewery and Cellarage, with a small BREWERY PLANT, which, with the present stock of Beer, Casks, Furniture, &c. may be had at a Valuation at the option of the Purchaser of the Premises. Also, a productive Garden of near half an acre; good Stabling Yard, &c.; the whole abundantly supplied with most excellent water.

For a view of the Premises, and particulars, apply to Mr. JOHN AUST, Quarry Master, near the premises; to GEO. SMITH, Solicitor, Yatton, near Chippenham; or to the Auctioneer, at the Bear Inn, Melksham.
