

Sale of Assets for Probate

To Clothiers, Woolstaplers, and others, concerned in the Clothing Manufactory.

To be SOLD by Auction, by MATTHEW RANDALL, by order of the Executors of the surviving Partner of Mess. Edward Mitchell and Edward May, Clothiers, of this place, both deceased, on the premises, on Monday the 9th of November, and following days, to begin precisely at 11 o'clock in the forenoon each day.

All their capital STOCK and UTENSILS in TRADE; comprising a very valuable assortment of Wool, in Packs (part scoured, part in fleece) calculated for the cloth, plunket, coating, blanketing, and other parts of the clothing manufactory; also upwards of 100 pieces of cloths finished, and ready for immediate sale; amongst which are blue rateens coatings of various sorts, plunkets, duffils, white cloths, cloths for horse collars, flannels, a large quantity of superfine blankets, a quantity of combed wool, worsted, thrumbs, blue drab, mixed claret, and various other colours in dyed wool; about 3 cwt of fine hard soap; several vessels of rape and gallipoll oil; Brazil, peach, and logwood rasped; allum, copperas, and various other articles; together with a very large assortment of utensils, tools, and other implements in the clothing manufactory, that will be more fully specified in the printed catalogues, which may be had of Mr. Vezey, attorney at law, Melksham; Angel Inn, Chippenham; George Inn, Trowbridge; New Bear, Bradford; Catherine Wheel, Calne; Lord's Arms, Westbury; Angel, Warminster; Greyhound, and Shakespeare, Bath; and of Matthew Randall, sworn appraiser and auctioneer, Devizes.

N.B. The stock may be viewed three days previous to the sale.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Monday, 9 November 1789