

*The Last Will and Testament
Of Ann Oakford Orchard
of Corsham
Will Proved
13th February 1850*

Probate Court of London
Original reference PCC Prob11/2107
Will Dated 30th July 1846

|                   |         |             |                     |
|-------------------|---------|-------------|---------------------|
| Testator:  | Orchard | Ann Oakford | Spinster of Corsham |
| Executors: |         |             |                     |
| Bond              | John    |             | Sole Executor       |

| Beneficiaries      |             | Relationship to testator | Other Information                 |
|--------------------|-------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Surname            | Given Names |                          |                                   |
| Arundel            | Louiza      | Servant                  |                                   |
| Bond               | John        |                          | Farmer of Nabald Farm, Chippenham |
|                    |             |                          |                                   |
|                    |             |                          |                                   |
| Witnesses   |             |                          |                                   |
| Awdrey             | West        | Gentleman                | Of Chippenham                     |
| Awdrey             | Frederick   | Gentleman                | Of Chippenham                     |
|                    |             |                          |                                   |
| Other Names |             |                          |                                   |
| Tanner             |             | Mr.                      | Deceased                          |

This is the last Will and Testament of me Ann Oakford Orchard of Corsham in the County of Wilts Singlewoman I give and bequeath to my Servant Louiza Arundel in case she shall be living with me at the time of my decease my large black leather trunk and all my wearing apparel and the bed and bedstead with the furniture which she now uses and in her bedroom and the dressing table and swing glass with such part of my bed linen as my executor shall think fit I also give to the said Louiza Arundel if she shall be living with me at the time of my decease the four mahogany chairs (one being an elbow chair) which were given to me by the late Mr Tanner and my easy chair in my own bed room with the stool used therewith and also the mahogany dining table and two small tables in the kitchen and also my clock and mahogany chest of drawers and fire irons and brass fender all in my own bed room and also the green handled knives and forks and all the common old china tea service and plates with the tea tray in common use and also all my books two of my silver table spoons and my six silver tea spoons and sugar tongs and one brass chamber candle stick I also give and bequeath to the said Louiza Arundel if she shall be living with me at the time of my decease ten pounds in addition to any wages which may be due to her And all the rest residue and remainder of my household goods plate linen china and all my monies and securities for money and all other my personal estate and effects which I shall be possessed of at the time of my decease Subject to the payment of my just debts funeral and testamentary expences I give and bequeath the same and every part thereof unto John Bond of Nabald Farm near Chippenham in the County of Wilts Farmer to and for his own use and benefit and I hereby appoint the said John Bond sole Executor of this my Will and I hereby revoke all former Wills and Codicils In Witness whereof I have hereto set my hand this thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty six _

Ann Oakford Orchard

(Attestation Clause)

West Awdrey of Chippenham Gent_ Fredk Awdrey of Chippenham Gent.

Proved at London 13 February 1850

PCC Prob11/2107