East Grimstead

East Grimstead is a chapelry in West Dean parish, wholly in Wilts, in Alderbury union, and about 2 miles west from West Dean.

In 1857 Trinity chapel, in the Early English style, was erected on the site of the old one, at the sole expense of the late Rev. Francis Glossop, M.A., as a chapel of ease for West Dean. It is seated for 68 persons. The chancel window is of stained glass representing The Crucifixion.

The area is 930 acres; gross estimated rental, £1,540; rateable value, £1,343; and the population in 1871 was 129.
