

Bakery Business Sale

Sale Monday next, August 15th

To Bakers and Others

Highfield, Great Common, Holt

Three miles from Trowbridge and Bradford on Avon

The modern shop, with 14 roomed dwelling house (formerly 2), recently erected detached bakery with Geen, Son and Co.'s hot air oven and accessories, flour loft, detached 3 stall stable, garden and premises known as the Hygenic Bakery.

Together with the goodwill of the baking and corn business (established 20 years) of Mr. T. H. Hopkins, who is relinquishing the trade from ill health, will be sold by auction by George Snailum and Sons, at the Lions Inn, Holt, on Monday next, August 15th 1904, at three for four o'clock. Water is laid on from the Great Chalfield Water Works.

The bakings average from 8 to 10 sacks per week. The vendor will assist the purchaser to secure and retain the present valuable connection.

The trade and house fittings will be included in the sale.

The book debts, bread van, horse, stock, and loose trade effects can be taken by the purchaser at valuation.

To view apply on the premises.

Any further particulars may be obtained of the Auctioneers, Church Street, Trowbridge; or of Mr. F. A. P. Sylvester, Solicitor, Trowbridge

Western Daily Press, 11 August 1904