

Congregational School, Holt courtesy of WSHC

Congregational School Concert

There was a large attendance at the Congregational School on Wednesday evening, when a very successful concert was given by the children, the proceeds, being towards the cost of improving the heating apparatus. The programme was a long one, the items being so well gone through that many were encored, and credit is due to those who assisted for the excellence of the entertainment.

Following is the programme:-

Chorus, "Jack Frost", seniors; action song, "Pickles", infants; recitation, "The youngest of six", E. Scrine; play, "The waxwork show", infants; Chorus, "Little man called Captain", juniors; burlesque, "The three wishes", infants; action song, "I want to be a soldier", four boys; dialogue, "Babies' troubles", Phyllis Fry and Molly Barnett; sketch, "Mistress and maids", senior girls; chorus, "Till the boys come home", seniors; chorus, "Come lasses and lads", juniors; action song "Little baby", infants; song, "The gipsy's life", Edith Edwards; recitation, "Best mixed pickles" infants'; shield, song and drill, junior girls; action song, "Red cross nurses", four girls; song, "Merry little gypsies", infants; recitation, "The colours on our flag", W. Hart; chorus, "The soldiers' chorus", seniors; duet, "Madam will you walk with me", Freda Scrine and Reg Plank; marching songs and drill, "The Union Jack" (introducing flags of St. George, St Andrew and St. Patrick), senior boys.

Wiltshire Times, 25 December 1915