

Church Matters

Homington 1800-1849

1834

The Rev. G. L. Benson, Clerk, L.L.B., has been nominated by the said Dean and Chapter to the Perpetual Curacy of Homington, void by the resignation of the Rev. E. Benson, Clerk, M.A. Gloucestershire Chronicle 1 March 1834

1848

The perpetual curacy of Homington, near Salisbury, now void by the resignation of the Rev. George Lewes Benson, L.L.B., one of the priest vicars of the Cathedral, and a surrogate of the diocese, has been conferred on the Rev. William Biscoe, M.A., incumbent of the adjoining parish of Coombe Bissett. The patrons are the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury Cathedral. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 22 June 1848

1849

Evan Yorke Nepean, B.A., of Queen's College, Oxon, licenced to the curacy of Homington, near Salisbury. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 7 June 1849