SWINDON INQUEST ON POLICE INSPECTOR

The adjourned inquest on the body of Police Inspector Albert Enos Mitchell, of the Wiltshire Police Force, stationed at Swindon, who was killed when he was involved in an accident with a motor-car on May 7, was held at Swindon Police Station yesterday.

The Wiltshire coroner (Mr. Harold Dale) returned a verdict of "Death by misadventure."

He remarked, "It seems rather tragic that Inspector Mitchell, who was an officer highly esteemed, and had retired recently, should have come back to the work in the Police War Reserve and have this happen to him."
