

Almshouses at Longbridge Deverill

Annual Distribution of Bread and Meat

The marquis of Bath's annual donation of fifty score of good ox beef and one hundred loaves of bread to the poor, residing in, and belonging to this parish, who have had no parochial relief during the past year, was distributed in a most impartial manner by the parish officers and principal ratepayers of this parish, on Monday, the 24th inst.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 29 December 1855