

The River Wylde and water meadows near Bull Mills

Silk Mills, near Warminster, Wilts.

To be LET, and entered upon immediately, All those capital SILK THROWING MILLS, called BULL MILLS, with Dwelling-House and offices, Workman's cottages, Garden ... Grounds, and upwards of 30 acres of rich water Meadow and Pasture Land.

The Mills command most excellent water power in constant supply, and are in perfect repair.

A Business engaging 200 hands has been carried on at these premises continuously for 30 years now last past by the Messrs. Ward, and were in full work at the decease (during the past month) of Mr. Thomas Ward, the last proprietor, and whose decease gives occasion for the present offer of occupancy.

For further particulars and treaty, apply to Mr. John Seagram, solicitor, Warminster.

July 28, 1849.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 4 August 1849