

WILLIAM ODY,

at the

Three Swans Inn,

opposite the Market-Place, in Sarum, begs Leave to acquaint the Nobility, Gentry and others, that he has lately provided neat Post Chaises with able Horses and careful Drivers, for the Accommodation of those who please to honour him with their Commands.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 29 June 1767