

C. N. Smart – Elected Surgeon of Salisbury Infirmary

To the VISITOR, PRESIDENT, and GOVERNORS of the

SALISBURY INFIRMARY.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

ALLOW me to return my most sincere thanks for the very flattering manner in which you have elected me to fill the Office of HOUSE SURGEON and APOTHECARY to your valuable Institution, and to hope that my endeavours to discharge its duties to your satisfaction may be attended with equal success.

I remain,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

C. N. SMART

SALISBURY, April 19th, 1828.
