

Bread and Pudding Committee

To Celebrate the Coronation of King George V

June 22nd 1911

The Bread & Pudding Committee was formed to provide a public meal as part of King George V's coronation celebrations on the 22nd June 1911. The photo shows the Committee sitting or standing in front of the Council Chamber, later the Guildhall, behind a Union Jack flag-draped table. The group includes Mayor of Salisbury, Richard Wilson, bakers George Rouse and Frederick Sutton and possibly wholesale grocer Alfred John Elliott, of the Market Place, Salisbury, Wiltshire.
