

THE FIRST ANNUAL CUCUMBER FEAST

Will be held on the 7th of April , 1830, at the Bell and Crown Inn, Catherine street, Salisbury.

T. WEST, in announcing the above Feast, begs most cordially to invite his Friends to the Banquet, and to thank them and the Public for the very generous support he has hitherto experienced, and assures them, that any future commands shall be attended to with the utmost punctuality and gratitude.

T. W. likewise informs them that he has such accommodations for their reception, that the greatest satisfaction may be relied on, particularly good beds (carefully aired), choice Wines a, Spirits, inferior to none, homebrewed strong Beer of superior palate, Stabling that cannot fail of being approved of, and charges on a scale of moderation.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 29 April 1830