

An Extraordinary Onion

We understand that Mr. Goulden, of this place, has an onion growing in his garden, which measures 19 inches in circumference.

The seed was obtained from Mr. Hinxman, near the Infirmary, Salisbury, and was sown in August last year.

Wiltshire Independent, Thursday, 20 August 1863