

*Advertisements
Placed in Newspapers
Salisbury*

FLY AND LEAR POWDERS

MESSRS. READ and Co. (late Squarey)

Solicit the attention of farmers to their

FLY AND LEAR POWDERS.

As being a most successful application to sheep for the purpose of protecting them from Flies, and producing a good Lear.

Sold in packets, one shilling and six pence each, which is sufficient to dress fifty sheep.

Market Place, Salisbury.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday June 26, 1858.