

VALUABLE LEASEHOLD PROPERTY FOR SALE.
THE QUEEN'S ARMS INN,
Ivy-street, SALISBURY,
and Four Cottages

MESSRS. KEYNES will SELL by AUCTION, at the WHITE HART HOTEL, Salisbury, on Wednesday, July 7th, 1858, at Four o'clock in the Afternoon, in one Lot.

All that well-known and long established Inn, called the QUEEN'S ARMS INN, Ivy-street, SALISBURY, together with Four adjoining cottages.

The premises have lately, gone through a thorough repair and the reason for disposing of them is in consequence of the death of the late proprietor.

The above sale presents an opportunity that seldom occurs. There has been a large and lucrative trade carried on for many years, and it is very desirable, either for occupation or investment.

Any further information may be obtained of Mr. Henry Cooper, Solicitor, Castle-street, Salisbury; or of the Auctioneers, Brown-street, Salisbury.

The Salisbury and Winchester Journal. Saturday Jun 26 1858. Page 4, Col. 1