

Salisbury

Wrongly Accused

Salisbury

Whereas a report has been spread abroad that Mr. James Pritchett, Clothier, of this city, had been concerned in exporting wool illicitly, which I have imprudently mentioned to several persons, but finding the same to be false, and injurious to his character, I think it my duty to contradict the said report in this public manner. Witness my hand, John Hopkins.

Source - Salisbury & Winchester Journal July 3rd, 1786.