

The Night Coach. [After Rowlandson.]

Stoford Accidents 1850-1899

1872

On Thursday last as James Henstridge was engaged in removing a bough from a tree it suddenly gave way and gave him a blow which broke his leg. He was at once conveyed to the Salisbury Infirmary. Salisbury and Winchester Journal and General Advertiser, 21 December 1872