MORSE'S HERBAL OINTMENT

A certain relief and almost infallible Cure for King's Evil, Scrofulous Sores, Sore Heads, Burns, Scalds, Broken Chilblains, Bad Legs, Bad and Broken Breasts, &c.

The very astonishing cures that have been effected by this invaluable Ointment, render it unnecessary to use any recommendations but such as are the results of their own surprising merits.

It is not the intention of the proprietor to puff off (according to the usual practice of the day), a spurious and useless remedy for the ills that afflict his fellow creatures, but simply to offer them substantial and immediate relief, in placing within their reach (at a very small cost) a cure for all their wounds.

Sold in pots, Government duty included, a Thirteen pence halfpenny, by the sole proprietor, CHARLES MORSE, Stratton St Margarets.

Sold also by the following agents: Messrs, Barclay & Sons, 95, Farringdon Street, London; Mr. Ricketts, Chemist &c, Highworth; Mr. Taylor, Chemist, New Swindon; Mr. Hibberd, Grocer, Old Swindon; Mr. Watts, Stationer, Wootton Bassett.
