

Dockle Farm

Dockle Farm was situated on what is now the Bridge End Road.

It is believed to be site of the house of Henry de Dochill in 1278.

A 1796 Enclosure Award was given to Martha Jones

Local paper shows Howard Edgar Hunt 9 month old child of Alfred Hunt dies here.

By the 1881 census it had become a dairy farm in 1881 with William J Whiteman as the farmer here.

The 1901 shows that ownership had passed to Herbert Ernest Wildern and is shown in residence there in the 1936 Electoral Roll and in also in the 1951 Street Directory, it seems he was still resident here until his death in the until he died in 1982.

The buildings was taken over by British Leyland and became the Pressed Steel clubhouse and is now 'The Dockle Farmhouse' pub owned by Wetherspoon's group.
