

Housefire in Penhill

Firefighters and Ambulance Crews Attend House Fire in Penhill

Firefighters have battled a house fire in Penhill this morning.

The fire is believed to have started at just before 9 a.m., at the home on Marston Avenue.

Three fire crews, from Swindon and Stratton fire stations, fought the blaze which started in the kitchen using three hose reel jets and four breathing apparatus.

A woman and three children were taken into the care of the ambulance service.

Wiltshire 999s, by Leigh Wilson, 20 April 2017