

Quoit Club Annual Outing

The annual outing of the above Club took place on Saturday last, when about 30 members and friends met at headquarters, and, after being photographed, a start was made for Hungerford, passing through Wanborough on to Aldbourne, leaving Littlecote House on the right, then through Chilton. Hungerford being reached at 11-30 a.m.

A stroll about the quaint old town soon brought dinner time. A capital hot dinner was supplied by Mr. Osmond, of the "Bear" Hotel, in his well-known style, to which full justice was done by the party after their long drive. Mr. Ellis made a most genial chairman, and the toast list being short there was time for several songs. Mr. Linsell, the popular host of the Club, added to the enjoyment by having the glasses refilled and cigars handed round. After inspecting a proposed new quoit pitch, and being shown through the gardens by the proprietor, a move was made for Marlborough, where a stop was made for tea and other refreshments.

Leaving at 6-30 p.m., Ogbourne, Chisledon and Badbury were safely passed, and home was reached shortly after 9 p.m., each one of the party having spent a most pleasant day in what was to most of them a new part of the County. The weather was all that could be desired, and the arrangement made by a small Committee were carried out without a hitch, and the general wish was expressed that similar outings will take place on many future occasions. Mr. H. Iles, of Stratton, conveyed the party in his two well appointed brakes.

The Swindon Advertiser, 12 September 1902