

Workhouse Notices of Births and Deaths

1800-1950

1901

Death at Workhouse      William Fellows aged 82 has died at the Workhouse. He entered the big house about 7 years ago and remained there until his death. Deceased was a professional clarinet player a one-time member of Dan Godfrey's band, and had worked for some time on the continent. He was described as a gruff old fellow with no known family and few friends. His wife pre-deceased him some years ago. He is buried at Stratton.
