

In The News

Sutton Mandeville

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT occurred this morning to Mr Stone, butcher, of Sutton Mandeville, just as he had left Wilton for this city. A cart with three dogs passed Mr Stone's vehicle, at a furious rate, occasioning Mr Stone's horse to run away. The cart was upset, and Mr S. was thrown out, and so seriously injured that fears are entertained of his recovery. He was taken back to the Pembroke Arms, where he now lies.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 3 May, 1851)