Emigration

Sutton Mandeville

Assisted Immigrant Passengers To New South Wales 1828-1896

Full Name	Job Payne
Birth Year/Date of Birth or Baptism	7th June 1840 at Sutton Mandeville (Baptism)
Age on Embarkation	14
Gender	Male
Occupation
Native Place and County	Sutton Mandeville
Full Names of Parents	Ryall Pegham (deceased) and Amelia Batten (nee Payne)
Religion	Presbyterian
Ability to Read and Write
State of Bodily Health, Strength and Probable Usefulness	Good
Arrival Date	7th September 1854
Vessel	Tantivy
Relatives in the Colony
Remarks	Resident of Chute; Also travelling Charles Batten (aged 42), step-father, Amelia Batten (Nee Payne), mother, Edwin Batten (Aged 5), Half Brother; Paid £2 to make the sailing.

OPC Notes:-
Job Payne married Elizabeth Jane Bunter on 18th April 1867 at High Range, Berrima, New South Wales.
They had children, Elizabeth (1869), Anne B. (1870), Stephen B. (1872), Selina (1874), William John (1875), Emily (1879), Amelia (1881),

Job Payne married Agnes Hackney (widow) on 7th June 1887 at Mittagong, New South Wales.

Mittagong   A warrant has been issued by the Mittagong Bench for the arrest of Job Payne, charged with unlawfully deserting his wife, Agnes Payne, at Mittagong, on the 12th October last, leaving her without means of support. He is about 50 years of age, 5 feet 1 inch high, medium build, dark complexion, dark hair, whiskers, and moustache turning grey; a labourer. Supposed to have gone to Taralga.

An article in the Robertson Advocate, New South Wales on Friday 12th December 1902 reads:

Among the old age pensions granted by the Goulburn Board on Friday last were the following:- Job Payne, labourer, Mittagong, 65, £26 …..

An article in the Wagga Wagga Express, New South Wales on Thursday 24th January, 1907 reads: On Tuesday morning, at the Wagga Police Court, Messrs. J. Jeremy, J.P. and W. Purtell, J.P. continued the hearing of the charge against an old man named Job Payne for maliciously setting fire to natural grass at Tootool, on January 11th. Less than half an acre of grass land was burnt. The Bench with little hesitation granted Payne an acquittal.

Job Payne died on 5th December, 1916 at Liverpool Asylum, Sydney, New South Wales. A death for Job Payne, aged 77 years, was registered in 1916, in the district of Liverpool, Sydney, New South Wales. Cause of death according to the death certificate was chronic myocarditis, senile dementia. He had been in hospital since 21 November 1916. Other details listed included - number of years in Australia - 16; born - Wiltshire; Marriage & children - unknown.

Job Payne was buried on 7th December, 1916 at Church of England Cemetery, Liverpool, New South Wales