

Crime and Punishment

Woodborough

1857

We understand that the cloths stolen from Mr Robbins' wharf, at Honey Street (as stated in our last...) have since been found in the possession of a beerhouse keeper at Seend, who, together with two other men in his employ, have since been apprehended, and are now in custody charged with receiving the same, knowing them to have been stolen. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 4 June 1857
