

British School, Wootton Bassett

Wootton Bassett, Education , 1850-1899

1874

BRITISH SCHOOL Forty children of this school, with the male pupil teacher, were examined in elementary drawing on the 6th March last. The report certifies that 23 of them gave satisfactory evidence of having been taught drawing, while ten of them gained certificates for good work, the remaining seven gaining certificates and prizes for work marked excellent. The pupil teacher obtained a certificate and prize in the second grade for freehand. The Wiltshire Independent 9 July 1874