Assisted Immigrants
To Australia

Sutton Mandeville

Assisted Immigrant Passengers to New South Wales Australia (1828-1896)

Name	Job Payne
Birth Year	1840
Place of Birth	Sutton Mandeville, Wiltshire
Age on Embarkation	14
Gender	Male
Parents	Ryall Pegham (deceased) & Amelia Batten (nee Payne) – On Board
Religion	Presbyterian
Arrival Date	7 September, 1854
Vessel	Tantivy
Origin Location	Chute, Wiltshire, England
Travelling with:	Step-father – Charles Batten (age 42) Mother – Amelia Batten (nee Payne) Half-brother – Edwin Batten (age 5)
State of Bodily Health, strength & probable usefulness	Good
Relatives in Colony	None
Remarks	Paid £2 for trip

Job Payne

Job Payne was born around 1840 at Sutton Mandeville, Wiltshire, England to parents Ryall Pegham & Amelia Payne. He was baptized at Sutton Mandeville on 7th June, 1840 with only his mother listed – Amelia Payne.

The 1841 England Census recorded Job Payne as 1 year old living at Long's, Sutton Mandeville. Also included in the household were – Stephen Pain (aged 60), Mary Pain (aged 60), Ruben Pain (aged 30), Mary Pain (aged 25), Amelia Pain (aged 20), Stephen Pain (aged 2), Job Pain (aged 1) & Jane Pain (aged 3 months). (Note- adults' ages were rounded up or down to the nearest 5 years in the 1841 Census).

Amelia Payne – Job's mother, married Charles Batten (father's name Benjamin Batten) on 26th October, 1848 at Everleigh, Devizes, Wiltshire. (Charles Batten was born at Hungerford, Berkshire – possibly 31st May, 1811).

The 1851 England Census recorded Job Payne as "Job (Pain) Batten" an 11 year old (born Sutton Mandeville) living with his mother, stepfather & half-brother at Everleigh, Wiltshire. Details of those listed were - Charles Batten (Agricultural Labourer, aged 40, born Berkshire) Amelia Batten (aged 38, born Sutton Mandeville), Edwin Batten (aged 2, born Everleigh).

Charles & Amelia Batten embarked for Australia with their children – Edwin & Job (Job was Charles' stepson) in 1854. They arrived in New South Wales, Australia on 7th September, 1854 having arrived aboard the vessel Tantivy. Details given were – Charles Batten – aged 42, Farm Labourer, born Hungerford Berkshire, parents – Benjamin & Hannah Batten (residing at Newton, Hampshire). Amelia Batten – aged 36, born Sutton Mandeville, parents Stephen & Mary Payne (residing in Sutton Mandeville). Job (Payne) Batten – aged 14, Farm Labourer, born Sutton Mandeville, parents – Ryall Pegham – dead & Amelia – on Board. Edwin Batten – aged 5, born Everleigh, Wiltshire, parents – on board.

A birth was registered in the district of Goulburn, New South Wales in 1864 for Amelia Batten, the daughter of Charles & Amelia Batten (nee Payne). (Her birth may have been 29th December, 1863 at Longreach, Goulburn, NSW).

Jobe Payne married Elizabeth Jane Bunter on 18th April, 1867 at Church of England, High Range, near Berrima, NSW. They had the following children:

- Elizabeth Payne – born 1869

- Anne B. Payne – born 1870

- Stephen B. Payne – born 1872

- Selina Payne – born 1874

- William John Payne – born 1875

- Emily Payne – born 1879

- Amelia Payne – born 1881

A death was registered in Goulburn, NSW in 1878 for Charles Batten (father's name Benjamin Batten). Charles Batten died at the age of 66 years at Longreach, Goulburn, NSW on 12th April, 1878.

Amelia Batten married George Meadley in Goulburn, New South Wales, Australia in 1880. They had married on 31st January, 1880.

Job Payne married Agnes Hackney (widow) on 7th June, 1887 at Mittagong, NSW.

A Warrant was published in NWS Police Gazettes on 1st February, 1888 at Mittagong, NSW for the desertion of Job Payne:

> Mittagong- A warrant has been issued by the Mittagong Bench for the arrestof Job Payne, charged with unlawfully deserting his wife, Agnes Payne, at Mittagong, on the 12th October last, leaving her without means of support. He is about 50 years of age, 5 feet 1 inch high, medium build, dark complexion, dark hair, whiskers, and moustache turning gray; a labourer. Supposed to have gone to Taralga.

A death was registered in Goulburn, NSW in 1897 for Amelia Medley (parents Stephen and Mary). Amelia Meadley (nee Payne, formerly Batten) died at the age of 79 on 13th February, 1897.

An article in the Robertson Advocate, NSW on Friday 12th December, 1902 reads:

> Among the old age pensions granted by the Goulburn Board on Friday last were the following:- Job Payne, labourer, Mittagong, 65, £26;…….

An article in the Wagga Wagga Express, NSW on Thursday 24th January, 1907 reads:

> On Tuesday morning, at the Wagga Police Court, MessrsJ. Jeremy, J.P. and W. Purtell, J.P. continued the hearing of the charge against an old man named Job Payne for maliciously setting fire to natural grass at Tootool, on January 11th. Less than half an acre of grass land was burnt. The Bench with little hesitation granted Payne an acquittal.

Job Payne died on 5th December, 1916 at Liverpool Asylum, Sydney, NSW. A death for Job Payne, aged 77 years, was registered in 1916, in the district of Liverpool, Sydney, NSW. Cause of death from death certificate chronic myocarditis, senile dementia, in hospital since 21 November 1916. Other details listed included – number of years in Australia – 16; born – Wiltshire; Marriage & children – unknown.

Job Payne was buried on 7th December, 1916 at Church of England Cemetery, Liverpool, NSW.