

Crime and Punishment

Foxham, Bremhill
1850-1899

1866

Alfred Hand of Bremhill was summoned by Mr W H Fry of Foxham for ill behaviour as a servant in husbandry. It appeared he was very insulting and abusive to the complainant's other servants, one of whom left him in consequence, and the others threatened to do so. After the examination of several witnesses, the defendant was ordered to pay the costs; and on the application of his master, the Bench discharged him from his service. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 13 September 1866