

Legacies & Benefactions For Charity

Bremhill, Foxham

Methodism & Poor of Foxham Bequeath

The late Mr Thomas Fry, otherwise Freegard, of Cadnam House, Bremhill, Wilts, farmer, deceased, has bequeathed the sum of £100 to the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and a sum of £20 to the Primitive Methodist Society. He has also given the sum of £100, to be divided among the aged poor receiving parish relief in the tything of Foxham, in the parish of Bremhill, and such labouring parent or parents belonging to the tything as may have three or more lawful children under the age of 16 years. The bequests are to be free of legacy duty.

Hampshire Advertiser Saturday 13 September 1873