

Newspaper Advertisements

Calne

1850-1899

SHEEP DIPPING SEASON, 1890. R. JONES, CHEMIST, CALNE, WILTS, undertakes the DIPPING of SHEEP and LAMBS at 1D. PER HEAD. The Sheep can be dipped with Coopers, the old "Arsenical Sheep Dip," or any other Dip which his customer may desire on giving notice. A practical man (JAMES MORTIMER, of Avebury), is sent with Dipping Apparatus to superintend the operation. Orders by post receive prompt attention. Correspondence invited. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 19 June 1890