

Miss Street's School for Young Ladies at Wishford Manor House

MISS STREET, of HYDE PLACE, WINCHESTER,

begs to announce to the Inhabitants of SALISBURY and its vicinity, that it is her intention to open a SCHOOL, for TWELVE YOUNG LADIES, at the MANOR HOUSE, GREAT WISHFORD, immediately after the next Christmas Vacation.

The Manor House and Premises, pleasantly situated a short distance from the Turnpike Road leading from Salisbury to Bath, are very commodious and airy, providing ample room for the necessary recreation of the Pupils.

MISS STEEL flatters herself, that her long and well-known experience in the Profession will sufficiently testify to her abilities as a Teacher, and to her fidelity in the discharge of the several arduous duties incumbent on her in her proposed undertaking. Hence she respectfully solicits a share of the public confidence and favour. --- The TERMS are moderate, and may be had on application at the Printers of this paper.

Genteel accommodation for a PARLOUR BOARDER.
