

Terms and Occupations

| Term Used in Years Gone By | Modern Day Equivalent  |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Ealdorman                         | Anglo-Saxon governor of a shire   |
| Eam                               | Uncle (Staffordshire)   |
| Eame                              | Uncle (Staffordshire)   |
| Earer                             | Ploughman   |
| Ebonist                           | Worker in ebony   |
| Edificator                        | Builder; Architect  |
| Eggler                            | Collector or dealer in eggs or poultry  |
| Eigne                             | Fist born or eldest son   |
| Ejector                           | An officer commissioned by Cromwell to eject unsatisfactory clergy from their benefices |
| Elderynges                        | Parents; Ancestors  |
| Eld-father                        | Grandfather   |
| Eld-mother                        | Grandmother   |
| Electioner                        | One qualified for parochial office but not appointed to any                             |
| Elisor                            | Sheriffs substitute for returning a jury  |
| Ellerman                          | One who sold oil  |
| Elliman                           | One who sold oil  |
| Elmother                          | Grandmother   |
| Elymaker                          | Oil maker   |
| Emmet                             | Ant   |
| Emptor                            | Buyer   |
| Ensign                            | Lowest commissioned rank in an infantry regiment  |
| Ehippiarius                       | Saddler   |
| Eques                             | Horseman  |
| Equitis                           | Horseman  |
| Eremite                           | Hermit; Recluse   |
| Escarius                          | Carver  |
| Escheator                         | Officer who took note of escheats to King in country                                    |
| Essoiner                          | One who makes essoins or makes excuses for another                                      |
| Essoins                           | Tenants making monetary payment or valid excuse for non-attendance at court             |
| Eware                             | Water bearer  |
| Ewer                              | Water bearer  |
| Excerptor                         | Culler  |
| Exchange-broker                   | One who negotiates foreign bills for a small commission                                 |
| Exercitor                         | Owner of trading vessel to who profits belong   |
| Exhibitioner                      | One who has allowance granted for support as a student at university                    |
| Extendour                         | Surveyor; one who extends property  |
| Eyer                              | One who made eyes in needles  |