

William Lisle Bowles, Poet and Clergyman

Publications

This day is published, price 9s

Elegantly printed in one vol. Foolscap octavo, embellished with engravings.

Dedicated to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

“The Spirit of Discovery; or the Conquest of the Ocean” A poem in five books with notes Historical and Illustrative.

Book 1: The Vision of the Ark. 2: Aegyptians and Phenicians. 3: From the fall of Tyre to the founding of Alexandria. 4: Progress of Discovery, in the Atlantic- to the Cape of Good Hope- America &c. 5: General Recapitulation and Conclusion-

To which are added Smaller Sea Pieces, and Epigraphs; - and “Rubens' Landscape” a poem written in London in 1805.

By the Rev William Lisle Bowles, Prebendary of Salisbury, Rector of Dumbleton Gloucestershire, Vicar of Bremhill Wilts and chaplain to his R H the Prince of Wales.

Bath, printed by R Cruttwekk; and sold by Cadell and Davies, Strand; and J Mawman, Poultry London. –

Of whom may be had, by the same Author in 2 vols, same size as the above, price 12s.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 7 February 1805

BOOK

Poems (never before published) written chiefly at Bremhill Wiltshire, by the Rev W Lisle Bowles 8s. Also by the same author.

1. Sonnets and other Poems, in two volumes, with engravings, 10th edition of vol 1 and 2nd edition of Vol 11, price 6s each in boards.
2. "The Spirit of Discovery" - a descriptive and historical poem in five books with notes. Embellished with engravings; one volume, 2nd edition price 9s.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 19 November 1812

Just published, price one shilling and sixpence.

Illustrations of those stupendous monuments of Celtic Antiquity, Avebury and Silbury, and their mysterious origin traced by a series of deductive evidence; including observations on the Great Rampart, Wansdike, and the adjoining highest elevation of the Wiltshire Downs, commonly called Tan Hill. Extracted from the Parochial History of Bremhill.

By the Rev W L Bowles.

"Nor rude, nor barren are the winding ways

Of hoar antiquity, but strewn with flow'rs"

Wharton

Calne: Printed and sold by William Baily; - sold also by Brodie and Dowding, Salisbury; Smith and Harrison, Devizes; Coombs, Chippenham; Emberlin and Lucy, Marlborough; and Upham and Ford, Bath.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 7 May 1827